LOCAL NEWS.

VIOLENT STORM .- Last night, between 9 and 10 o'clock, a portion of the heavy black clouds which had been gathering for several hours, in the North and North East, passed over this place, and poured forth a torrent of rain and hail accompanied with incessant flashes of lightning. Though quite violent here, it was evident that the severity of the storm was felt elsewhere, in the quarter from which the clouds came on. The hail stones, fortunately, were not very large, (the largest being about the size of nutmegs,) and their fall lasted only for a few minutes. As it was, however, a great many houses and stores, fronting to the North, had many panes of glass broken; and the storm broke down some trees, tore off limbs from others, and prostrated or injured fences. Mr. John Slater, at his place, near town, had much of the glass in his hot houses destroyed, and considerable injury done to his garden. The young peach trees, and the growing corn, around .077n, suffered severely from the wind and hail. The large poplar tree which has stood for so long a time, near the corner of St. Asaph and Princess streets, was blown down, and in its iall, mashed two small frame shanties in the neighborhood. Much damage was sustained by the breaking of the window panes in the Man sion House, at the Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad Depot, and in the sky-lights of the canuerrean galleries and sales rooms.

DEMETERY AT CULPEPER.—The Washington Star says, a site has been selected by Col. M. Ludington, Chief Quartermaster Department of Washington, for a National Cemetery at Culpepper, Va., and a corps of workmen re now employed under the direction of Major Gleason, in laying out, grading and fencing in the ground. The Cemetery is located on a rising ground about one-fourth of a mile south of the town, on the farm of Mr. Hill, and can be seen from the Orange and Alexandria Railgoad at a distance of two miles above and below Oulpeper. It contains an area of six acres and is intended to receive the remains of all those men buried between the Rappahannock river and Gordonsville, including those who fell in the battles around Cedar Mountain, estimated tabout 4,000 bodies.

THE CASE OF DR. MADDUX. - In the case of Dr. T. Clay Maddux, convicted of shooting at William H. Vernon in the street, and sentenced to six months confinement in the city jail, writ of error supersedeas has been awardad by Judge Joynes, of the Court of Appeals, to the judgment of the Hustings Court. according to the order awarding said writ, the prisoner was held to bail yesterday by Judge Meredith, with Martha E. Hill as security in the sum of $2,000 for his appearance before the Hustings Court and recognized in the sum of $500 with the same security, to keep the beace.-Rich. Times.

LOUDOUN COUNTY .- Movements are on foot ior a re-organization of the Loudoun Agricul farel Society, or the sale of its property and ces. by the ladies, over the graves of the Confederate soldiers, buried in Leesburg, took place on Monday last; the graves were strewed with lowers. Two men confined in the jail at Leesburg made their escape last week. The Mirfor says, the two negro men who stole a horse and a firkin of butter from Mr. B. F. Taylor, of Loudoun, a week or two ago, were arrested Alexandria, the stolen property recovered, rad the thieves brought back, and lodged in the eesburg jail.

MRIL OF INJUNCTION--The Adam's Express Jempany has filed a bill of injunction against the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, to prohibit that Company from carrying any express mather except that forwarded by the Adam's line. The case will be argued in this city, before Judge Underwood, U. S. Judge for the District, on Caturday morning next. Counsel for the Adem's Express Company are Gen. Wells and Wm. Smith, of Baltimore; for the National Express Company, Gen. Imboden and Colonel John B. Baldwin. It is supposed the writ will be granted.

EXCURSION.—The Sunday School of the Second Presbyterian Church, on the steamer Newaset, and accompanied by many friends, made an excursion to-day to Glymont, in the chedy groves of which pleasant summer retreat, the party spent the day.

Supposed Mad Dog.—Considerable excite ment was created in the neighborhood of the corner of Prince and Pitt streets this morning, by the appearance there, and the actions of a dog, supposed to be suffering from rabies.

THE STORM, was quite severe in Washingion. The hail pattering on the glass roofs of the Capitol interrupted for some time the proceedings of Congress. Torrents of rain fell. in Baltimore there was a heavy rain.

COAL VESSELS.—The river during the past week has been filled with vessels going to and eturning from Georgetown, engaged in the coel trade.

GENERAL NEWS.

A dispatch from Mobile, of the 19th, says: "T. J. Chandler this morning at daylight fought a duel with L. Holcombe. At the second fire Chandler received a ball through the chest, living about twenty five minutes. Holcombe was formerly a soldier in the federal army, and Chandler in the Confederate army. The difficulty originated in disputing whether Columbia, South Carolina, was burned by Gen. Sherman's order or by orders of Confederate

The bill which has just passed both houses of Congress, precribing the manner in which United States Senators shall hereafter be elected, provides that such election shall take place on the second Tuesday after the organization of the Legislatures of the several States, by a viva voce vote in each house.

Old steamboat men declare that the signs of the past four or five seasons point to the permanent drying up of the Mississippi river, reducing it from a stream navigable for the largest boats, the whole season, to one of uncertain navigation, like the Missouri, passable at certain seasons.

The Senators elect from Nebraska, Messrs. Thaver and Tipton, are on their way, post haste, for Washington to secure, it possible, the admission of that Territory as a State, before the adjournment of Congress. These gentlemen are both Radicals.
